Counsel,

The Court has received the Government's Motion to Dissolve the Preliminary Injunction and the other parties' respective responses. I apologize for the late notice, but Judge Braden has asked me to email everyone and inquire about the feasibility of holding a hearing tomorrow morning, May 8, 2014 at 10:00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time. The hearing would be in-person and take place at the Court of Federal Claims. In particular, Judge Braden would like to speak with Bradley T. Smith, Chief Counsel (Foreign Assets Control), Office of the General Counsel, at the Department of the Treasury, in order to better understand the representations made in his May 6, 2014 letter regarding the Court's Preliminary Injunction.

I need to add the following caveat, however: Judge Braden's daughter is pregnant and is due tomorrow. Therefore, there is a possibility that any hearing we schedule for tomorrow morning would need to be cancelled at the last minute. In that event, we would conduct the hearing in the afternoon on Monday, May 12, 2014.

Again, I apologize for the indeterminacy and last minute notice.

Mr. McCall:

For today's status conference, would the Court mind also calling an Air Force attorney in California, Jason Smith, at 310-653-3222, also at 3:25pm ET?
